The new Neptune steamer met with an accident Thursday night at the fire in Minooka through the amount of sediment in the water plug to which it was attached. When the engine steamed up and started a stream on the flame, it was seen that the water pipes were filled with small stones, pieces of wood and other obstructions. Vesterday afternoon the members of the company took the engine apart and re-moved the stuff that had collected in the valves and the engine is again in shape for active work.

Breaker Street.

NO CAUSE FOR DEED IS KNOWN

Had Been in Scranton Late in the Afternoon-He Returned Home and at 7.30 Went to His Barn Where He Ended His Life with the Assistance of a Piece of Rope.

George W. Sisco, carpenter, of 516 Breaker street, committed suicide by hanging himself last night in a barn behind his residence.

Deceased had been to Scranton late in the afternoon and had paid his taxes and was seen about the house until about 7 30 p. m., when his family thought that he was in the basement, where he kept some of his tools and did some of his carpentering work. At the time he committed the fatal act, his son was chopping sticks in the yard nearby, and heard no unusual noise. At 9.15 he went to feed the horses in the barn and saw his father apparently standing on a box. He spoke to him and, receiving no reply went nearer, and, upon touching him, ound that he was suspended.

He gave the alarm and his brother-in-law ran and cut down the body, which was warm at the time, but it was soon evident that life was extinct. Mr. Sisco was about 50 years of age and leaves a widow and four children, Mrs. Hemlock, Mrs. Henry Reatty, Bert Sisco and Grace Sisco, he youngest daughter. He acted as a special officer, at one time was con-stable of the Second ward and last year acted as watchman at the base ball grounds.

He owns the substantial dwelling in which he resided on Breaker street, as well as a farm of moderate extent. No cause can be assigned for the leed, as the family declare that to their knowledge the deceased was not involved in any difficulties, financial or otherwise. A rumor spread last even ing that he had recently been addicted to drink, but it is impossible that his mind was unhinged from that cause as he was known to be sober yesterday. The rope used in the fearful act was a thin hemp rope fastened to the cross-bars on the ceiling, about ten feet from the floor, with a running noose, which he affixed round his neck and then sliding from a box gave himself an eleven-foot drop, which strangled him. Coroner Kelley will hold an inquest this morn-

Street Commissioner Kirst says Streets Will Be Properly Repaired.

The numerous complaints of late regarding the condition of the Central city street and the fears often expressed that they will not be properly repaired by the com-panies which have torn them up, prompted a TRIBUNE reporter to interrogate Street ommissioner Kirst on the subject. That gentleman stated that he wished

THE TRIBUNE to assure the people of Scranton that the streets will be placed in as good a condition as they were before the street car and steam heating compa-nies began their operations. "Before I would grant a permit to the street car company," said Mr. Kirst, "I demanded a cash deposit of $6,000 as a guarantee that they would repair the torn up portions of the street to my satisfaction. The asphalt company has assumed the responsibility of the steam heating company's repairs, this arrangement having been made on account of the fact that the asphalt company must keep in repair for several years yet the pavement on many of the streets traversed by the com-pany's pipes. We have the bond of the asphalt company for a faithful perform-ance of this duty. The law says that repairs to pavements must be done to the satisfaction of the street commissioner. have their money, and if they don't do the repairing I will at their expense."

The large tent for holding the Moody meetings in was raised yesterday afternoon on the properties of H. M. Edwards and J. Alton Davies on North Main avenue. The tent measures 80 by 120 feet, and will seat nearly 2,000 people. The work was done under the direction of Mr. Bliss, who will conduct the evangelical work in this section. The seats are made of canvas and will be placed in circular form within the tents. The meetings in the various churches this week have been the means of evoking a great interest in the affair and the attendance will be very large.

Among the most prominent workers besides the stuff of Mr. Bliss are: Rev. D. W. Skellinger, Rev. L. C. Floyd, Rev. D. C. Hughes, Rev. A. W. Cooper, William B. Owen, William Lull, A. B. Eynon, D. E. Hughes, Elias E. Evans, Minor Worden and D. W. Morgan. The exercises will begin tomor-row afternoon, and the singers of the various West Side churches are requested to meet this evening at 7.30 o'clock in the tent for rehearsal. It is supposed that the meeting will be contined for about two weeks.
